

1st October 2025

End-of-Studies Internship Offer – Sales / International Business Assistant

Duration: 4 to 6 months, starting January 2026 (exact date to be defined)

Location: Arradon (56), France

Driving license required (Category B)

About Sailteck:

Sells high-performance race electronics worldwide via a reseller network

Established markets: Europe, UK, USA Growing presence in the Southern Hemisphere

Customers: competitive sailors, from club racers to Olympic champions Major new product launch planned for February 2026

About the Internship:

Travel opportunities: RYA Dinghy Show (London, February 2026)

Regattas in France, the UK, and across Europe

Key tasks:

Training race teams and resellers via video calls

Providing regatta support Exposure to various areas:

Commercial: pricing, discounts, warranties, logistics, negotiation

Technical: product quality, UI design, system integration, on-water testing

Sales & Marketing: customer relationships, purchase decision-making

Candidate Profile:

Fluent in English (spoken, written, video calls, phone)

Background in competitive sailing Outgoing, strong communication skills Willing to travel and comfortable with social media.

How to Apply:

Send your CV, sailing CV, and a cover letter in English to: mark@sailteck.com

Application deadline: October 31, 2025